CHARGE FORGERY AND CONSPIRACY IN ELECTIONS

OF DIRECTORS OF THE NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

SEVERAL ARRESTS MADE

District Attorney Jerome Was in Charge of Investigation Just Concluded.

New York, May 1.—The inquiry conducted by District Attorney Jerome into the recent election of directors of the New York Life Insurance company has been followed by startling results. George Scroggins, manager of international policy-holders' committee, which inspired the present investigation, making grave charges against those who conducted the election, was himself arrested at Albany and put aboard a train for New York. Scroggins is charged with conspiracy, and he was the third man identified with the international policy-holders' committee to be taken into custody. The others are Charles Sturup and Charles F. Carrington. These two were not members of the committee, but were employed as watchers from the committee at the election. Sturup was a watcher at the directors' election of the Mutual Life Insurance company, while Carrington acted in a similar capacity at the New York Life election. They are specifically charged with having "unlawfully conspired together for the perversion and obstruction of the due administration of the laws of the state of New York with relation to the election of directors of the New York Life Insurance company."

Jacob Frank, a New York Life Insurance company agent, was arrested, charged with forgery in the third degree. Frank had been summoned to explain the signatures of several policy-holders to alleged forged ballots cast at the recent election of directors of the New York Life.

The policy-holders' committee, headed by Scroggins as manager and Samuel Untermyer as counsel, and with a membership of many distinguished persons in this country and Europe, fought the "administration tickets" in the recent elections of directors of the New York and Mutual Life Insurance companies.

Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the policy-holders' committee, gave out the following statement: "My attention has just been called to this complaint. During a considerable part of the campaign I was in Europe. I know nothing about the subject of the complaint except what I have just heard, but it looks on its face very much like a cry of 'stop thief' on the part of the companies. They know that the forgeries on the part of the agents ran into thousands, and they would like to obscure the issue. I have no doubt Mr. Scroggins will be able fully to meet this latest move on the part of the companies to cover their tracks."

Since the elections in both the New York and Mutual companies on Dec. 18, the district attorney's office has been looking into the counter-charges of crooked work by the administration party and policy-holders' committee.

CONGRESS SPENT OVER $920,000,000 AT RECENT SESSION

Congress Also Increased 16,434 Salaries at an Annual Cost of $2,949,353.

Washington, May 1.—According to the volume on appropriations made, new offices created, etc., during the last session of Congress, which has just been compiled by Thomas P. Cleaves, clerk of the Senate committee on appropriations, and James C. Courts, clerk of the House committee on appropriations, the total appropriations for the session were $920,798,143. In addition to these specific appropriations, contracts were authorized for public works requiring $67,934,349, of which over $49,000,000 is for river and harbor improvements and almost $16,000,000 for battleships, torpedo boats, etc. The largest appropriation carried by any one measure was $212,091,193 by the post-office bill. The naval bill carried $98,958,507, the army bill $78,634,582, and the pension bill $146,143,000.

The net number of salaries increased is 16,434 at an annual cost of $2,949,353. This number includes increases in the salaries of the vice president, speaker of the House, nine cabinet officers, 90 senators and 296 representatives and 14,272 em-

STROMBOLI IN VIOLENT ERUPTION.

VIOLENT ERUPTION OF SICILY VOLCANO

Messina, Sicily, May 1.—Some of the inhabitants of the island of Stromboli, who have fled from there and reached this city, describe the eruption of the Stromboli volcano as terrific. The detonations were deafening. Red burning stones, ashes and cinders were thrown up, and about 1,000 feet over the top of the volcano, which is 3,040 feet above the level of the sea, an immense dark umbrella-shaped cloud formed. The industrious population of the island, numbering about 2,000 persons, had with great effort gradually cultivated the sides of the volcano almost up to the crater, chiefly as vineyards, but the eruption has entirely destroyed everything within a radius of 1,500 feet of the crater and has seriously damaged the rest of the island.

Naples, May 1.—A dispatch from Stromboli reports that the volcano plays of the railway mail service.

The annual compensation of 19,900 clerks in postoffices is increased in the aggregate, $2,100,000; the annual salaries of city letter carriers are increased $2,000,000 and 36,900 rural letter carriers are increased $6,647,000.

A comparison of the total appropriations made at the second session of the 59th Congress for 1905, $920,798,143, with those of the first session of that Congress for 1907, $879,185, shows an increase of $41,208,958.

FATHER SEEKS ABDUCTORS OF HIS LITTLE GIRL

New York, May 1.—Rivalling in mystery the case of the Marvin boy is the disappearance of Elizabeth Grady, a fourteen year old girl, of Fort Washington avenue and 18th street, who has not been seen for more than a week. Today, however, it was said a clue that may lead to a solution of her mysterious absence had been found, but it was admitted that it was nothing tangible.

The parents of the girl are almost frantic. If it is found that the girl has been maltreated and her father, Andrew J. Grady, ever gets within striking distance of the persons responsible, it is safe to say that strong punishment will be theirs. So overcome has the father been over his child's mysterious disappearance that for days he has been distracted in his search for her.

The Grady girl was on her way a week ago to church when she disappeared. She was to meet several girl friends on the way and none of them saw her after she left her home.

Buckeye Fugitives.

Fort Smith, Ark., May 1.—Baltimore & Ohio railway detectives here seized possession of George S. Shrock and Charles Elder, charged with being members of a gang of organized car thieves, who escaped in February from Chicago Junction. The men returned east in charge of the officers without requisition papers.

has developed sudden activity. About 9.30 a. m. there was a tremendous report, which had the effect of breaking all the windows in the vicinity. This was followed by a hail of cinders and stones to the great terror of the inhabitants. Immediately afterward streams of lava began to flow down the east side of the mountain, completely destroying the vineyards in their path. Several peasants who were at work on the slopes of Stromboli at the time are missing and it is feared they were overtaken by lava and killed.

BOTH NOW DEAD

Girl Thought Her Lover Had Deserted Her, Killed Himself, He Did the Same.

Huntington, W. Va., May 1.—Samuel Rittenour, a foreman at the West Virginia Brewing company plant, committed suicide by taking carbolic acid. Saturday Rose Spears, with whom Rittenour had been keeping company, ended her life in precisely the same manner, because she thought Rittenour had deserted her. Rittenour returned from Kentucky, where he had been on business, and learning of her death, drank the deadly acid in the room in which the girl had ended her life.

IN READINESS

For the Opening of the Trial of Haywood for Governor Steunenberg's Murder.

Boise, Idaho, May 1.—Clarence S. Darrow of Chicago and E. F. Richardson of Denver, attorneys for Charles H. Moyer, William D. Haywood and George A. Pettibone, the men accused of the murder of former Governor Frank Steunenberg, have arrived, and announce they are ready for the opening of the trial of Haywood on May 9. Mrs. Haywood has arrived with her two daughters, aged 17 and 11. She is an invalid and moves about in an invalid chair. Mrs. Moyer is ill at the hospital. Mr. Moyer visits her regularly each day, while Mrs. Pettibone has an opportunity to promenade in the grounds with her husband daily. The courthouse stands in a large square, surrounded by a beautiful lawn. These three prisoners sleep behind bars in a jail addition built at the back, but during the day they are permitted to go out in the grounds.

COLDEST APRIL SAVE ONLY ONE EVER EXPERIENCED

Washington, May 1.—The month of April, 1907, was the coldest April in the last 26 years; and within a degree of the coldest April ever experienced, according to the weather bureau. The bureau's report says: "The month was characterized by a succession of cold spells, which swept southeastward over the northeast Rocky mountain slope and gradually spread southward and eastward over the entire country east of the Rocky mountains. The cold was almost continuous except for brief intervals of a day or so of warmer weather, and it closes with remarkably low temperatures in the interior valley and the southwest."

ANDREW CARNEGIE WAS CRITICISED IN THE REICHSTAG

Berlin, May 1.—There was a general debate in the Reichstag on Germany's foreign relations, and incidentally Andrew Carnegie's recent reference to the decision of the peace conference being in the hands of Emperor William was criticised and classed as a distortion of facts. Speakers of various parties pointedly suggested to Chancellor Von Buelow that Germany should take no part in the discussion of the limitation of armaments at the Hague peace conference. The chancellor replied Germany did not object to letting other powers discuss the matter, but would hold aloof. This statement was received with approval.

ATTORNEY ATTACKS THE SUPREME COURT IN A PETITION

Washington, May 1.—Attorney Warren B. Wilson of Chicago, whose suit against Secretary Shaw, by which he attempted to have declared illegal the payment of $50,000,000 for the purchase of the Panama canal from the French company, was recently decided against him by the supreme court, has filed in that court a petition for a rehearing. Referring to the court's statement that the "amount of complainant's interest is not disclosed," he asserts that "no bill of this kind ever alleged anything as to amount of property complainant owned." "The only startling thing about the matter," he adds the attorney, "is that the supreme court of the United States should be 'startled' at the idea that a citizen disclosing as the basis of his right only his citizenship and legal liability to be called on to contribute by taxation to the public treasury, should presume to think himself entitled to demand from this court that the constitution should be obeyed by men in high places as well as by the lowly. Whenever, in the judgment of the president or congress, it seems necessary or desirable that new power should be granted, the proper process to secure it is not to apply for it to those for whose benefit it is to be exercised, but the powers should be simply seized, and this should be made permanent by the court. The part in this increasing process assigned the court is that from time to time the judges should, in direct violation of their oaths of office, falsely declare from the bench that the constitution means what they know it does not mean."

Captain William H. Thomas, 63, prominently identified with the oyster buying and packing industry of Baltimore for 20 years, committed suicide by shooting.

A caboose in which several live-stock shippers were riding was run into by a switch engine at Kansas City, Kan., and partially demolished. Carl O. Rossell, 3, of Leonardville, Kan., was killed and five others were injured.

BERLIN, April 30.—Prince Eitel Friedrich, Emperor William's second son, fell from his horse during a cavalry drill. The horse took fright and threw back its head, striking the prince in the face and knocking him unconscious from the saddle. When the prince revived he suffered from a violent headache.

BLIND SISTERS AFTER 28 YEARS RECOGNIZE EACH OTHERS VOICES

Mrs. Jane Wade, mother-in-law of Mr. J. W. Hoenberger, has been enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Mary Simpson, of Zanesville. The two sisters drifted apart over a quarter of a century ago, and have never met in all that time until they came together a few days ago. Notwithstanding the fact that both women are totally blind, they instantly recognized each other's voice when brought together. The meeting was a most joyful one. Mrs. Simpson returned to her home in Zanesville on Tuesday.

TEST VALIDITY

Of the Act Prohibiting Railroads Discriminating Against Union Labor.

Washington, May 1.—The validity of the act prohibiting railroads engaged in interstate commerce from discriminating against members of labor organizations in the matter of employment, is called into question by the case of William Adair against the United States, which was docketed in the supreme court of the United States. The case comes on a writ of error from the eastern district of Kentucky. Adair is the master mechanic of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, and he was proceeded against on the charge of threatening to discharge an engineer named Coppage because the latter was a member of the Order of Locomotive Firemen.

Who'll Confess?

Brownsville, Tex., May 1.—A movement has been started here towards raising by popular subscription $10,000, to be paid as a reward to any soldier or officer of the Twenty-fifth infantry who will confess to having participated in the raid on Brownsville in August last, or will give the names or produce the necessary evidence to convict those who are guilty.

AERONAUTS BEGIN A BALLOON TRIP

Captain Chandler is Making Aerial Observations for the United States Government.

St. Louis, May 1.—Captain Charles Chandler of the United States signal corps and aeronaut J. C. McCoy of New York city started on the long distance balloon trip they had been trying to take for three days. They hoped the wind would carry them eastward that they might land near Washington, D. C. but immediately upon leaving the ground the balloon took a southerly course veering slightly to the west. Captain Chandler is making aerial observations for the government. Several carrier pigeons were taken and messages will be sent back to St. Louis by the aeronauts. Captain Chandler said before entering the basket that they expect to be in the air about 48 hours. The America, in which McCoy and Chandler ascended, is the second largest balloon in the United States. It has a displacement of 78,000 cubic feet and lifting power of 3,300 pounds.

FARMER MEEKER MAKES ADDRESS TO A BIG CROWD

OLD PIONEER WHO IS RETRAV-ELING THE OLD OREGON TRAIL.

IS PICTURESQUE CHARACTER

His Ox Team and Prairie Schooner, as Well as Himself Attracts Much Attention.

Ezra Meeker, a pioneer of the Oregon Trail, who is retravelling in the ripeness of years, the trail he followed to west in his youth Tuesday night set forth to a large audience on the streets of Newark the object for which he is taking the long journey from Oregon to the capital of the nation. The old man, with flowing white hair and beard, and his "prairie schooner," drawn by patient oxen, made a picturesque figure, surrounded by the stately evidences and busy life of modern civilization, as exemplified by the surroundings of today.

"Farmer" Meeker told the story of his life in words of simple earnestness and with no indirection. He is on his way to Washington, he said, to urge on the government the building of an enduring monument to the builders of the great west in the form of a great concrete thoroughfare, which shall follow the old National Road, and the Oregon Trail from east to west.

He began by introducing himself as a citizen of Ohio 76 years young. He said that he was born in Huntington, Butler county. He said that in 1837 he emigrated with his wife in Oregon where he has since lived the simple life of a farmer with his life-companion who remains to greet him in his return.

Mr. Meeker, in his address, said: "Most of you wonder why I came at this time of life would cross the plains with an ox team at this age. The world and spend months traveling, when he could have come any all the way in five days, and by all the comforts of life. I tell you why. But first let me tell about the team and outfit, and by the questions so often asked, that this is uppermost in your mind. This ox 'Dave,' came all the way from the stock yards at Tacoma was an unbroken wild Montana steer. When I yoked him I never before had a rope on him when branded. He is six years weighed when purchased 1570 pounds traveled on this trip over 2000 from Puvallup, near Tacoma this city. Seventeen hundred out from my home the nob 'Twist' died, from eating poison meat I think. Anyway, he was working trim the forenoon he sick when the start was made and was dead before sunset. I'm the ox left I purchased this fine ox on the near side, 'Dandy,' out of stock yards at Omaha, and broke in on the way. He, too, was a steer, that had never been harnessed. His weight when purchased was pounds. He now tips the scale 1625 pounds.

"The wagon is of the type known as the 'Prairie Schooner,' that was general use 50 years ago—wooden axle, necessitating the inchpin the tar bucket, with its sway buck which doubtless gave the name of type of wagon, being, as you see, shaped, suggestive of the name. As my friends, the pioneers of the plains applied this likeness in a more literal sense than in a name only by utilizing them as boats in crossing rivers. I crossed the Great Snake river at two places with all of my belongings, except the cattle with my wagon bed in 1852, and small wonder if I should look upon this type of the almost forgotten past akin to a feeling of most of reverence.

"One word as to that faithful companion, the Scotch Collie dog 'Jim.' Jim has come all the way; has been a reliable watchman at night and cheerful companion of days—always good natured, except with the ox 'Dave' they are enemies.

"I will tell you now why this was made in this old-fashioned way. To perpetuate the identity of the Oregon trail, to honor the true hero who went it and to kindle in the hearts of the rising generation a flame of patriotic sentiment, this expedition was undertaken. The team was chosen as a typical reminder of pioneer days, as an effective means to attract attention, arouse enthusiasm, and as a help to the forward the work; and I'm sure passing that from the Missouri to Puget Sound, 20 monuments of during stone have been provided by the people along the trail. Most of them are now in place stand guard for centuries to come.

The First Secretary had requested the State Department to watch out for the young man on the Sannio, but the federal authorities were not prepared to find a man consigned to an em-bassy traveling in the steerage of an Italian steamship. WILLIAM S. EDMAN
TAKES A TRIP

Noy, O., April 29—1 left home on the 19th of April, at 6 o'clock a. m.
The ground was covered with snow.
I drove 12 miles north to Mt. Vernon with a cold northwest wind blowing and the thermometer getting down towards groundhog station. At 9:15
I took the fast line for Dayton, arriving there at 12:30. There I had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Romine, a niece of mine, and her two sons.
We drove to the home of one of the sons and took dinner. Later I drove seven miles against a cold northwest wind and put up for the night. On the 20th we visited the cemetery where my brother-in-law's wife and two children lie cold in death. We then drove to the cemetery where lies my nephew, returning later to dinner.

On the 21st I visited Mr. Benjamin Ball. He being absent, we spent only a short time with Mrs. Ball, who had the grip and could speak in a whisper only. I returned to visit with Mr. George Harding and wife from Bryan, and Mr. Jackson Tod and wife of this place. Mr. Harding and Mrs. Tod are Licking county folks.
It is needless to say that we talked of our country. On the 22d I went to see C. E. Monigat at whose place I saw some improved Chester
White pigs which were the best pigs
I ever saw. He took me to see his Red Poland cattle. We then took dinner and drove four miles toward Defiance, which is a very nice place, situated at the junction of the Maumee and Auglaize rivers. Here the canal empties into the river and the boats go seven miles on the river to the dam.

We visited the Riverside cemetery which is divided into three parts, one for the Catholics, one for the protestants, and one for the Jews. It is all kept in fine shape. We rode along the bank of the river until we passed the Island of Parak, which is out in the river. It contains 25 acres and has a driving park with a one half mile track. It is connected with a pontoon bridge which is taken away in the winter to avoid its being broken by the floating ice.

On the 24th we visited Jackson
Tod and wife who know how to satisfy the appetite.

"FARMER" MECKER

that the memory of the old trail shall not fall into oblivion and be forgotten by the generations to come.

In one place (Baker City, Ore.) 800 school children contributed their mites to place a bronze tablet on the granite shaft erected by the citizens as a "children's offering" to the memory of the pioneers. At Boise, Idaho, over 1,000 children contributed sufficient to erect a granite shaft 12 feet high,
which was placed on the statehouse grounds and dedicated in the presence of 5,000 people. Again, at America Falls, Idaho, a cement shaft 14 feet high, suitably inscribed, stands in the exact track of the trail, within the confines of that growing city and in a park dedicated by a generous woman to protect a section of the trail.
It is known as "Pioneer park."

And so, along the route this journey came as an offering to gladden one's heart and to give us assurance that patriotism is not dead in the breasts of the people though apparently it may be dormant, and that it but needs a spark, if I may be allowed the term to keep alive the memories of the past.
grey headed men stand almost by the
The ox team did it. I have seen old oblivious of all other surroundings and with moistened eyes as the rush of old time memories would irresistibly take possession of their minds. Do I not see some of them now? My friends of the later generations, take these thoughts to your hearts and see if you may not read a lesson that will serve you well after life.

And who are these pioneers we wish to honor? And what particular great achievement have we to record, you ask? Where is this old Oregon Trail?
I will tell you.

Wednesday morning the outfit was taken to the corner of West Main and Third streets, where Mr. Mecker gave another talk after which it was taken to the Everett glass works, where Mr. Mecker told the story of the Oregon Trail and of his life to the glass workers at the noon hour. This afternoon he left for Zanesville, and expects to arrive there Friday evening.

BRANCH FACTORY OF STYRON-BEGGS

To be Established on South Fourth Street, in the Crescent Rink Property.

Styron, Beggs & Co., wholesale chemists and manufacturers of this city, on Tuesday afternoon purchased the building and property on South Fourth street which has been used by the Crescent Roller Rink company and owned by them. The chemical company will take possession of the property next Wednesday and will begin at that time to make the necessary changes preparatory to opening a branch factory to accommodate the ever increasing business of the firm.
This means that the skating rink will be abandoned.

Mr. F. L. Beggs of Styron, Beggs
& Co., stated to the Advocate Wednesday morning that it would not be possible for him to announce the details of his plans until later.

The company has been in operation in this city for 10 years and in this time the business has grown so rapidly that constant changes have been necessary to accommodate it. The firm now has a branch on Hoover street, in North Newark. The new property is 50 feet wide and 100 feet deep and it is probable that a new building will be erected here.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Has cured so many cases that seemed almost beyond the reach of medicine, that people ask, Why?
 An examination of our well-known formula, from which Hood's Sarsaparilla is and always has been carefully and scientifically prepared, confirms the fact that it contains those well-known and valuable medicinal ingredients, which,
 when intelligently combined and properly administered, are sure to bring about good results.
 It is the properly balanced proportion, combination and process in combining those ingredients known to have specific action upon the blood, stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, which make Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar to itself and enable it to produce results unequalled by any other medicine. It cures when others fail. "Give it a trial."

MRS. J. L. MILLER
 12 North Second Street

Murdered by Negro.
 Fernandina, Fla., Ma. 1.—Thomas
 Johnson and his wife were murdered
 at Italia, a small settlement near here, by a negro. When the aged couple were shot down at their home, there were two small negro children near by and they hastened to give the information to the house nearest by.
 They state that Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were in their house when they were shot down by the negro, and that both of them cried for help. Observing the two children, the negro reloaded his gun and gave pursuit. The children state that they outran him and got away. There is no clew to the mur-derer.

Report on Kelsey Case.
 Albany, N. Y., May 1.—The judiciary committee of the senate, by a vote of 7 to 3, decided to report to the senate without recommendation as to the removal of Otto Kelsey from the office of state superintendent of insurance, recommended by Governor Hughes on Feb. 20. This vote involved the defeat of a resolution intended to make it the judgment of the committee that the recommendation of the governor be concurred in. The amendment states that the committee has "heard the superintendent of insurance, his counsel and his witnesses, and received the documentary evidence offered, and submits the record thereof to the senate for its consideration." Governor Hughes refused to discuss the matter in any way.

Headway in Bond Inquiry.
 New York, May 1.—By securing papers that had been locked in the vaults of the Atlantic Safe Deposit company, the district attorney's office made material headway, it is believed, in its investigation of the conspiracy through which the Trust Company of America was robbed of bonds aggregating in value more than $500,000.
 It was reported that the papers in question included considerable correspondence. Both Oliver M. Dennett and W. O. Douglas, who are in custody, were questioned at length. Following the talks with Dennett and Douglas, a strong box was brought to the district attorney from the Atlantic Safe Deposit company.

DRUNKENNESS CURED

It will be gratifying to all lovers of temperance and a happy home to know that a simple and a scientific cure for the whiskey and beer habit has been discovered. Orrine never fails to cure drunkenness if it is used in accordance with the simple directions in the package, and the discovery has so much confidence in the treatment that we are authorized to sell it with an absolute guarantee, to effect a cure or the money will be refunded.
 It is in two forms: No. 1, to be given secretly, and No. 2, for those who wish to be cured, $1 each. Mothers and sisters have told us of husbands and brothers who since they were given Orrine, in many cases without their knowledge, have lost all desire for drink, and we are glad to recommend the remedy. Mail orders filled.

Foreigners at White House.
 Washington, May 1.—One of the most brilliant social functions of the season was given at the White House Tuesday night, when President and Mrs. Roosevelt entertained at dinner all the principal officers of the United States and foreign navies who participated in the ceremonies attending the opening of the Jamestown exposition.
 The dinner was followed by a reception.

Train Derailed.
 St. Paul, Minn., May 1.—A report to the Great Northern railroad headquarters here says that passenger train
 No. 1 was derailed two miles east of Midvale, Mont. The entire train with the exception of the engine and a compartment car was derailed. A mail clerk and several children on the train were slightly injured. The cause of the derailment is not known here.

Respected His Scruples.
 In the mathematics class one day at Williams college Professor S., who was rarely made the subject of college jests, was excessively annoyed by some man "squaking" a small rubber bladder. The noise seemed to come from near a certain Jack Hollis, and after querying each of his neighbors and receiving a negative answer Professor S. said sternly:
 "Hollis, do you know who is making that unbearable noise?"
 Hollis, who had been the guilty person all along, assumed an air of stoical bravery and said calmly, "I know, sir, but I prefer not to tell."
 Professor S.'s angry face grew calmer, and with evident pleasure he replied: "I respect your scruples, Hollis.
 They do you credit and should shame
 the guilty man, sir."

NEED VINOL
 for it hastens recovery by creating strength

Our local druggist, Frank D. Hall, says: "There is just one thing the matter with a person who has been sick—that is, weakness.
 "To all such people in Newark we recommend our delicious cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, as the very best strength creator for convalescents we have ever sold in our store.
 "Vinol strengthens the digestive organs, creates an appetite, promotes sound sleep, makes rich, red blood, and builds up a depleted system to health and vigor.
 "This is because Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal and strength creating elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, with the useless, arseusating oil eliminated and tonic iron added.
 "We return money to those who buy Vinol and receive no benefit."
 Frank D. Hall, Druggist.
 Note—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Newark, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency

BALL PARK WILL NOT BE FIN-ISHED IN TIME FOR THE OPENING GAME.

Series of Games May Have to Be Transferred on Account of Strike Settled Unlikely.

(By O. P. News Asson.)
 Youngstown, May 1.—The force of carpenters at work on the fences and buildings at Willis park, Youngstown's new league ball grounds, went on a strike this morning and unless some special provision is made for the completion of the work at the ball park, the grounds will not be ready for the opening game next Tuesday.
 In order to have the buildings completed it will be necessary for the union to make a special ruling for this case, and this is not possible.
 The situation looks very dark today.
 If the local park is not ready, the first series of home games will be transferred to Mansfield, and Sharon with whom Youngstown has games

Can't
Miss It

So many ailments are purely nervous affections,
 that you can hardly miss it if you try Dr. Miles' Nervine. It restores nervous energy—and through its invigorating influence upon the nervous system,
 the organs are strengthened. The heart action is better; digestion improved, the sluggish condition overcome, and healthy activity re-established.
 "Dr. Miles' Nervine is worth its weight in gold to me. I did not know what ailed me. I had a good physician but got no relief. I could not eat, sleep, work, sit or stand. I was nearly crazy. One day I picked up a paper and saw an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Nervine. I concluded to try it and taking the doctor's word, I did so. After taking two bottles I could dress myself. Then I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and now I can work and go out, and have told many the benefit I have received from these remedies and several of them have been cured by it since. I am fifty-nine years old and pretty good yet."

One Personal Favor.
 The late Thomas Nolan, a well known member of the bar of New York, was once retained as counsel for a poor widow named Mulcahy. She was suing a construction company for damages by reason of her husband's death. The case had been frequently postponed, and it was in a very distressed state of mind that the widow sought the lawyer just before the suit came up for the eighth time. In court the next day Nolan's rich brogue was more than usually fervid as he fought against the further adjournment of the case. "I am sorry," said the justice presiding, "but, Mr. Nolan, your opponent has shown good cause for adjournment. The case will, therefore, go over till next week." "Very well,
 your honor," said the lawyer sweetly,
 "but might I ask your personal favor of this court?" "Certainly," replied the judge. "Will your honor kindly step down to my office and tell Mrs. Mulcahy that you have again adjourned
 the case?"—Bellman.

The "Professors."
 A bandmaster tells of an incident that occurred during a country festival in the southwest. The advent of the famous band had been awaited with intense interest by the natives, and when the musicians arrived they were quickly surrounded by a surging crowd which hemmed them in so that it was difficult for them to proceed with their concert.

The bandmaster appealed to one of the committee to keep the crowd away, saying that unless his men had more room they could not play. The committeeman shook the musician's hand warmly, then, turning to the assembled multitude, he bawled out:
 "Say, you uns step back and give the purfesser's purfessers a chanct to play!"—Youth's Companion.

Good Influence.

"Young men are very valuable in business," remarked the bustling.
 "Yes," answered Mr. Rocks. "They inspire us older fellows with an ambition to really know as much as they think they know."

One Way of Escape.
 "Life," remarked the pessimist, "is really not worth the living."
 "If that's the way you feel about it," rejoined the optimist, "you should apply for a job as baseball umpire."—

Found Out.
 I think that there's but little room
 For doubt that they are bride and groom.
 She looks at him with so much pride
 It's certain she must be a bride.
 And his adoring looks betray
 His groomship—it's a give-away.
 I notice, too, the lady's hat.
 I'd want no better proof than that.
 But, taken with that lilac dress,
 It puts the matter past a guess.
 Then he's so natty and so trim
 There's not the least mistaking him.
 Their baggage! See the silver tag
 That gleams upon the lady's bag.
 His suit case! I've seen very few
 So very yellow, fresh and new.
 No ordinary married man
 Would carry one so spick and span.
 And—did you see him look at her
 As they approached the register?
 Just wait a little while and see
 When she puts sugar in his tea.
 There! That should shake your belief;
 He's just picked up her handkerchief.
 And note her sudden carnal bloom!
 You bet that they are bride and groom.

MANAGER LEASON OF THE ORPHIUM IS TRANSFERRED
Manager R. H. Leason of the Orphium vaudeville theater has announced his transfer to the Sun & Murray booking office at Springfield, O. Mr. Leason will go to Springfield Monday, May 6. He will be succeeded here by Manager Baum of the Marion theater, Marion, Ohio.
Mr. Leason came to Newark and took up the management of the Sun & Murray theater on March 4, last, and handled it successfully, pleasing both the patrons and the members of the profession, who were so fortunate as to appear in his house. Mr. Leason is an ex-newspaper man who is thoroughly familiar with things theatrical and knows how to please.

While Mr. Leason's departure from Newark is regretted, it is believed that he will be succeeded by a man of equal ability. Manager Baum, of Marion, has had many years experience in the show business and is highly endorsed.
AT THE ORPHIUM.
This week's offering at the Orphium as a whole is excellent. The headliners, the Alarcon trio of Mexican singers, dancers and musicians, at first class, and present a new feature in vaudeville. The trio consists of Senor Alarcon, Senora Alarcon, and Senorita Rosa Alarcon, who is a very beautiful young woman and has a voice of exceptional strength and sweetness. Her best number is the Laughing Song, in which she has good opportunity to display the full power of her voice. The dances and poses are added to very perceptibly by the rich costumes of the trio.
Bartell and Garfield opened their act with a very funny song, and kept up the laughter with bits of clever repartee. Balancing Stevens with chairs, tables, bottles and bricks, kept his audience thrilled every moment with his daring feats in the balancing act. Stevens is first class.
The Clevelanders have a very good act, in which Miss Cleveland displays a voice of great strength, in fact too strong for the limited acoustics of the theater. They have also some funny dialogues. Miss Place in the illustrated song, "Waiting at the Church," gained her usual hearty

MAUDE ADAMS IN PETER PAN.
The Great Southern theater, Columbus, announces that it offers, for the conclusion of this season, what will constitute a grand dramatic festival—the engagement of the most popular actress in the most popular play of the day, Maude Adams in Peter Pan. The engagement will be for Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 1, 2, 3 and 4, with a matinee on Saturday. Mail orders will be accepted and filled in the order of their receipt.
It has been known since the opening of the season that Maude Adams would appear in this masterpiece of J. M. Barrie's before the year was over, but the exact date had not been made public until during the last week. The prices range from fifty cents to two dollars. Scarcely anything need be said regarding the merit or appealing quality of Peter Pan, for ever since its first production in New York, it has received page after page of praise in every periodical published in the country.

"Les Bouffons," New Play for Maude Adams.
New York, April 30.—Announcement, apparently official, has already been made that when Miss

M. MIGUEL ZAMACOIS
Maude Adams gives up "Peter Pan" she will appear in "Les Bouffons," the play in which Sarah Bernhardt has recently made such a success at her theatre in Paris. Even before the new play is seen it is unconsciously being submitted to a series of tests in the minds of many, for "Peter Pan" has set a standard for the public and Miss Adams that might well make both captious.

IS MOVING DAY THIS IS MAY 1
Almost Entire Block Vacated by Tenants on East Main for Warden House Improvements.

Today was moving day throughout the city, and despite the raw atmosphere so strongly evidenced many persons changed their quarters and found new homes, which may or may not be more suitable than the ones vacated.
Along East Main street nearly an entire square was cleared of tenants. Here the Licking Light and Power company office, Livingston's livery stable, a novelty repair shop, and a miscellaneous assortment of smaller places were vacated, the tenants moving to various sections of the city.
These stores and office buildings will be soon torn down in order to make room for the addition which will be made to the Warden Hotel.
The addition to the hotel will be over 100 feet in length and five stories in height. It will contain 75 modern equipped rooms and extend in width a distance of 140 feet. Work on tearing down the vacated buildings and the erection of the new addition will commence as soon as Captain Warden returns from Chicago, which will be possibly next Monday.

RESCUERS
The Men Have Been Imprisoned Since Friday and Were Exhausted When Found.

Johnstown, Pa., May 1.—At 3:15 this morning the seven miners were taken from the mine and ten minutes later were placed aboard a special train and started to the hospital at Windbar.
The rescued men were Mike Boyla, the contractor who assumed charge of the party after the accident and six others.
At the Windbar hospital they were at once put to bed and given liquid nourishment. All are doing fine. They suffered no greater physical discomfort than that entailed by hunger and cold in the raw air of the mine.
"Hell itself can offer no greater terror than we endured in that heading. The tomb would be a paradise beside it." These were the words of Mike Boyla, the foreman, in describing his terrible experiences. "Shut off from food, except the scant supply in the dinner pails, the dread of what might happen when we became desperate, the idea of starvation made imprisonment worse agony. The awful spectre of our having to turn cannibals to sustain the lives of a few was before us constantly. It was haunting me, and I could tell by the furtive look of the other men that they were thinking of the same thing, but thank God, it is all over now."

Johnstown, Pa., May 1.—Alive and apparently in good condition, the seven men who have been entombed by a rush of water in Eureka mines at Foustwell since Friday morning, were found shortly before 10 o'clock Tuesday evening. Stoney Rodon and Charles Ream were the men who made a dash through 50 feet of water-filled heading and reached the imprisoned men. Owing to the weakened condition of the unfortunates it was decided not to bring them out until after the mine had been drained.
An hour elapsed before the rescuers were heard from, and then Ream came swimming back through the heading bringing the first news of the imprisoned seven. The effort had nearly exhausted Ream. He reported that the seven men were alive and all in good shape, but that until more pumping was done the passage to the place where they had taken refuge was impassable to those who could not swim. Then it was resolved to allow them to remain where they were until the heading had been pumped out.
Ream and his comrade carried to the imprisoned men simply a flask of brandy and a little water. He reported that Mike Boyla had since the breaking of the walls between the abandoned working been in charge of the movements of his comrades. Boyla is acquainted with every turn of the mine in which he was imprisoned. When the flood broke out he led his comrades to the highest point in the heading, where the "overcast" was situated. Under Boyla's direction each man, before fleeing, seized his lunch basket. When they arrived at the overcast every lamp but one was extinguished, and one by one the lamps were each burned out until, when reached by Rodon and Ream, there was but a single light remaining, and that in danger of running low at any time. Of the dangers they faced, darkness was the most terrible of all. When stock was taken of the available supply of provisions it was found that three baskets were but half-emptied. This scanty store of rations was husbanded by the men till Monday morning, since when the men had nothing to eat. During the whole time they have gone without water, fearing to drink the water from the abandoned workings.

Within a short time after the flood broke loose, Boyla and his companions had rigged up a pump which they found and began pumping the water that lay between them and the pit mouth into a dip on the other side of them. They pumped continuously Saturday night and Sunday. Sunday night some of the men slept. Monday they began pumping again. To overcome the intense cold, when not pumping the men dug coal. Boyla kept a man tapping continuously on the compressed air pipe.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT BUCKEYE LAKE
Buckeye Lake, O., May 1.—While engaged at work on a cottage on the north shore of the lake, near the Rosebraugh place, Henry Jones, a well known carpenter of Hebron, aged about 61 years, met with a serious accident. Mr. Jones and another carpenter named Dell Miller, were standing on a scaffold engaged at work on the cottage, when the supports gave way and both men were thrown to the ground, a distance of about ten feet. Mr. Jones, who is a very large and heavy man, struck the ground on his head and shoulders and was seriously injured. He was taken to his home in Hebron, where his injuries were attended to.

ADVICE TO RHEUMATICS
Noted Physician Tells How to Prevent and Cure Rheumatism, Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

If you would avoid Rheumatism and Kidney and Bladder Troubles moderate in the consumption of heavy, rich foods, substitute as far as possible soups, broths, fresh milk, and drink water—lots of water. Take plenty of time to eat, and don't eat after you have had enough, even if it does taste good. If your work is confining take a moderate amount of exercise each day in the open air.
The following is a letter from Mr. Wm. S. Edman, a pioneer of Burlington township, in this county. Mr. Edman is now traveling in the western part of this state and the eastern part of Indiana:
Of course, neither diet, water, rest, nor exercise will cure these afflictions. I advised them as preventives only. For the benefit of the readers of this article who are now afflicted with Rheumatism, Kidney, Bladder or Urinary trouble, and desire to be cured quickly, I give below, complete in every detail, the famous prescription which has made me so successful in the treatment of these diseases. It is the most certain cure for these diseases that I have ever used. It is pleasant to take, it is not expensive, it can be filled by any druggist, and I believe it is the greatest prescription for Rheumatism, Kidney and Bladder Trouble ever written. It is also a valuable spring tonic and blood purifier. If you are a sufferer, save this, take it to your druggist and have it filled, or get the ingredients and mix them at home. Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, 1-2 ounce; Concentrated Barkola Compound, 1 ounce; Fluid Extract Prickly Ash Bark, 1-2 drachm; Aromatic Elixir, 4 ounces.

Adult dose, take one teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime; children, one-fourth to one-half teaspoonful after meals.
After you are cured follow the advice I have given you in regard to diet, exercise and water, and you will not need the services of a physician again for these ailments.

NEGRO IS ALMOST KILLED BY A LION
Brute Reached From Bars and Grabbed Man, Ripping His Arm Wide Open.

Pittsburg, May 1.—Benjamin Irwin, colored, an expressman, had a narrow escape from being torn to pieces Tuesday morning by a lion of the Rollins Zoological Congress, while transferring the animals to Luna Park. George W. Rollins, the owner of the beasts, was superintending the transfer of the brutes at the B. & O. freight yards, the cages having arrived from winter quarters in the south. Mr. Rollins had cautioned everybody to give the cage of Mad Cronje a wide berth, but several expressmen made the boast that they would pet Mad Cronje's paw.
Irwin had just finished stroking two lion cubs through the bars of a cage and was passing near Mad Cronje's cage when the huge brute reached out and grabbed the negro by the right arm, ripping the forearm so badly that the tricep muscles were laid bare. Mad Cronje had reached the other paw from the cage and was hugging the negro, who was speechless from fright, to the bars, when Mr. Rollins discovered the negro's plight, and seizing an umbrella from a spectator, beat the lion back into the cage, at the same time shouting to the brute.
Irwin was taken to a nearby physician's office and the wound cauterized and Irwin was removed to his home.

16 Doctors pronounced case of Eczema incurable, but D. D. D. Prescription cured it quickly.

If you doubt it, read this letter from a man whose integrity no one can question, who is the leading furrier of Toledo, O.

Toledo, O., March 25, 1904.
D. D. D., Chicago, Ill.
Gentlemen: I have long been desirous of writing you a letter of gratitude for the happy results obtained from your wonderful remedy, D. D. D., and I am doing so now with a deep feeling of appreciation, hoping that it may bring the same happiness and relief to other sufferers that it brought to me.
Six years of intense suffering from a severe case of eczema, to be given up as incurable by sixteen doctors, several of whom were specialists of skin diseases, and then to have tried every known medicine for my ailment without effect and finally to procure absolute relief and a permanent cure from a new remedy, is an experience that justifies any action in making it known to the public; and I feel that it is my duty to give it as much publicity as possible, so that other sufferers may be relieved. My sympathy goes out to those who have to go through what I did. It was almost unendurable, and not only was it a most painful disease, but its appearance was horrible on my face, and for years I went from home to the store and back again, going to no place of amusement or visiting any friends, simply going through a daily ordeal that I could scarcely endure. Worse than that, I was restricted to eating certain things, and any change from that would greatly increase the pain. My hands and finger nails were unsightly, and I wore gloves all the time. My eyes were swollen most of the time so that I could hardly see, and my ears and face had all the resemblance of a raw piece of steak.
All this embarrassment and pain and misery have entirely left me. I can now call on my friends, go any place I desire and my business is receiving the attention that it should. When specialists will pronounce you beyond cure, and you are advised to seek another place of residence, and leave your established and profitable business, is it no wonder then that I should write you this letter?
Thanking you again, and wishing your great remedy continued success, believe me, I am your grateful friend,
ROBERT SUSSMAN.

If you are suffering the tortures of the damned don't hesitate, but go TODAY, NOW, to your druggist and invest $1.00. It will not be an expenditure, but an investment in happiness.

Petition Filed at Findlay to Enjoin Trust From Doing Business in This State—Other Important News of the Buckeye State.

Findlay, O., May 1.—A petition was filed in common pleas court by George H. Phelps, who asks that the Standard Oil company and its subsidiary companies be enjoined from doing business in the state of Ohio. Violations of the Valentine act are alleged. In a journal entry filed later Mr. Phelps stated he and the people he represented were ready to furnish a bond in the sum of $100,000 that the people of Ohio would not want for the necessary oil products should the companies be ousted as prayed.

It is understood the independent oil producers are back of Phelps.

Circuit Judge Duncan overruled the motions to quash the indictments against the Standard Oil company and its constituent companies, but sustained demurrers to the indictments found by the grand jury in 1907. Judge Duncan stated he would be ready to hear the first trial the week beginning May 13. Prosecutor David will endeavor in the meantime to obtain a ruling from the supreme court on some of the legal issues involved.

Cannellville is a mining village of 800 population on a branch of the Z. & W., on which heretofore no passenger trains have been run.

County Salary Act.

Dayton, O., May 1.—A suit, which involves the constitutionality of the county salary law and which will go to the supreme court for final determination, was brought in the common pleas court here by Edward T. Hall, a taxpayer, against John L. Theobald, county recorder, to compel the members to pay into the county treasury $4,249.33, collections of the office for the quarter, January 1 to March 31. Theobald refused to obey the law, claiming it to be unconstitutional.

Said to Have Confessed.

Portsmouth, O., May 1.—Mrs. Kate Shope is said to have made a confession that her husband, Frank Shope, a brickworker, murdered the town marshal, Arthur Rutter, at New Boston Saturday night. The motive for the murder was not explained. She was taken into custody at Bloom Switch, a small railroad point east of here, where Shope fled after the shooting. A sheriff's posse is scouring the hills of this section in the hope of effecting his capture.

Dropped His Suit.

Toledo, O., May 1.—D. J. Cable of Lima, O., who sued A. K. Detwiler, the man who was indicted in connection with the telephone bribery cases at San Francisco a short time ago, in the common pleas court for $20,000, has dismissed his suit. Want Original Rules Restored.

Columbus, O., May 1.—The state railroad commission set May 6 as the day for hearing the motion of John F. Wilson, attorney for the Ohio railroads, to amend the recent ruling of the commission in the matter of car service regulations. Norwalk, O., May 1.—Andrew Spies, a young lumber merchant of Monroeville, formerly of Norwalk, committed suicide in a fit of temporary insanity by shooting himself in the head with a revolver.

PRETTY ROMANCE IS CONSUMMATED

Cupid does funny things now and then, but one of his latest pranks has resulted in the wedding of Mr. Austin J. Hills, of Detroit, traveling representative of the Curtis Leger Fixture company, of Chicago, and Miss Grace Woolenhaupt, formerly a pretty stenographer employed in the office of Superintendent Bayley of the Springfield headquarters of the Big Four. Mr. and Mrs. Hills were guests at the Hotel Warden here Wednesday.

The pretty little affair was brought about in this way: Mr. Hills had been acquainted with Miss Woolenhaupt for some time but a week ago yesterday while in Cleveland, O., he suddenly decided to marry her if she would accept him. So he hid himself to a long distance telephone, called Miss Woolenhaupt in Springfield, and, after expressing his love, asked her to become his wife. She must have consented without hesitation for they were married in Columbus the next day by the Rev. D. E. Patten. The bride was accompanied to Columbus by her sister, although it is said that no others of the family knew of the affair until it was over. The matter was agreeable to the parents of the young woman, however, as Mr. Woolenhaupt and the young man are said to be quite intimate friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hills are now on their honeymoon, and getting plenty of publicity out of the "little plot that love planned."
